DEDICATION

"On ne voit bien qu'avec le coeur. L'essentiel est invisible pour les yeux."

St. Exupéry

She who has earned this dedication possesses just such a quality; the ability to know her students, to capture their thoughts and to challenge them. When she is gone, the loss will be ours. For this reason the class of 1975 dedicates this yearbook to Mme. Solange Avsenew.

Words that are currently in fashion, such as sensitivity, awareness, creativity, involvement could all be applied to the class of 1975. Words alone, however, cannot convey the spirit and the images with which you have filled the school. Yours is a class of special talents exhibited with enthusiasm and dedication. It would be hard to find anywhere a group with such diversity of interests. Each individual has worked toward her particular goal with directness of purpose and with an understanding of the value of high standards of performance and of results. You have not lost your sense of pleasure in something well learned, or of something accomplished. You leave behind you an example for others to look up to, and to emulate. You take with you the capacity to care about people, and about a job well done. God speed.

SENIORS

Each of us has one special place, if not physical, at least in the mind and heart. It is not always easy to reach this country of the spirit — this emotional landscape — but all of us can find it if we take the time and effort, or perhaps find the honesty to see our own values clearly.

lindsay carroll

The world is a beautiful place to be born into if you don't mind happiness not always being so very much fun, if you don't mind a touch of hell every now and then, just when every thing is fine, because even in Heaven
they don't sing all the time.
- Ferlinghetti

Sury

Sunrise doesn't last

*Sitting here in limbo
Waiting for the dice-to-roll
Sitting here in limbo
Had some time to search my soul
Yes there's been some resistance But I know that my faith will lead me on*

*I don't know where life will lead me But I know where I've been I don't know what life will show me
But I know what I've seen
Had my share of love and friendship
But what's in the past is gone
This little boy is movin' on*

— Jimmy Cliff

My Tao is beginning to rise like the daily sun and I know where I am going like the leaf carried in the stream — carried along with no will of its own but with purpose and a place in a cycle within cycles with cycles. I must prepare. I must repair. My house is not in order — I set it so. My dreams have changed — what was once important is no longer held up high — I am more than passions! I must be!

*When we are really honest with ourselves we must admit that our lives are all that really belong to us.
So it is how we use our lives that determines what kind of men we are.
It is my deepest belief that only by giving our lives do we find life.*

LOVE

*There's the wonderful Love of a beautiful Maid, and the love of A staunch true man,
And the love of a Baby that's unafraid—
All have existed
Since time began.
But the most wonderful Love, the Love of
of all loves, is the Infinite, tenderest, Passionate love of one dead drunk for Another.*

*What though the radiance
Which was once so bright
Be now for ever taken from my sight,
Though nothing can bring back the hour
Of splendour in the grass,
Of glory in the flower;
We will grieve not, rather find Strength in what remains behind.*

When we were in seventh grade you explained to us the facts of life.

When we were in ninth grade you chaperoned our dances with Lawrenceville.

When we were in eleventh grade you guided us to our senior year bearing THE SACRED LETTUCE.

And now that we are in twelfth grade we want you to explain the facts of life again.

THANKS MISS MICHEL.
